

Educational business game

2018

Environmental Improvement Business Board Game "BEAT the BEAST"

"BEAT the BEAST" is a board game that improves the work environment within the team, helps people get to know themselves and each other better and fosters better understanding and support from their colleagues. The game takes place in a fun, positive and relaxed atmosphere.

The game is designed in an easy-to-use concept, it can be effectively led by any employee of the company.

Main results:

- Participants of the game get to know each other better;
- The game destroys the mutual conflicts and barriers;
- The game participants jointly perform various attractive and interesting tasks;
- The players get positive feedback about their good qualities;
- The game fosters mutual understanding and trust among participants;
- The game facilitates participants' communication on a daily basis;
- The game is a common, positive and memorable adventure.

Environmental Improvement Business Board Game "BEAT the BEAST"

Game course:

Each player is the part of one team that fights against the Great Spider. You can win only by working together. It is also important that each participant contributes to achieving the goal. Each move gives a task, question, loss or benefit. Each participant must choose what to do or don't, knowing that every decision can help to win or lose points. Of course, luck is also key!

Application of the game:

- The game is used as a tool for improving the environment within the team;
- The game is used as an icebreaker for an introduction of large events;
- The game is used for a better understanding between project team members;
- The game is used as a part of team-building events.

Game details

The duration of the game is 2 -3 h.

The game is for up to 8 members.

